

Genetics

Program-Approved Science/Humanities Bridge Courses

2020-21 Catalog

If no semester specified, should be offered both S. and F. Be sure to check for course prerequisites.

(This list looks shorter because cross-listed courses are now only listed once.)

BIOL 307^{USD}: Women in Science and Engineering (cross-listed with WGS 307), offered alt. F, odd-numbered years
ENV S 334: Environmental Ethics (cross-listed with PHIL 334), offered F
ENV S 362: Global Environmental History (cross-listed with HIST 362), offered S
ENV S 363: U. S. Environmental History (cross-listed with HIST 363)
ENV S 384^{IP}: Religion and Ecology (cross-listed with RELIG 384), offered S
HIST 280^{IP}: Introduction to History of Science I
HIST 281^{IP}: Introduction to History of Science II
HIST 284^{IP}: Wonders of the World, Ancient to Early Modern, offered F
HIST 380^{USD}: History of Women in Science, Technology, and Medicine (cross-listed with WGS 380)
HIST 382: History and Philosophy of the Scientific Revolution (cross-listed with PHIL 382), offered S
HIST 383^{IP}: Technology, Public Science, and European Culture, 1715-Present
HIST 482: Birth, Death, Medicine, and Disease
HIST 488: American Stuff, Colonial Times to the Present
PHIL 206: Introduction to Logic and Scientific Reasoning, offered F, S, SS
PHIL 230: Moral Theory and Practice, offered F, S, SS
PHIL 235^{USD}: Ethical Issues in a Diverse Society, offered S
PHIL 330: Ethical Theory, offered F
PHIL 331: Moral Problems in Medicine, offered S
PHIL 334: Environmental Ethics (cross-listed with ENV S 334), offered F
PHIL 336: Bioethics and Biotechnology
PHIL 343: Philosophy of Technology (cross-listed with T SC)
PHIL 380: Philosophy of Science, offered F
PHIL 465: Brains, Minds, and Computers, offered F
RELIG 324: Christianity and Science, offered S
RELIG 360: Religious Ethics